MINUTES

October 30, 2006

Members present: Chuck Kinen, Don Volk, Steve Livengood and Kern Miller
Staff present: Rob Koppert
Citizens present:

Chairperson Chuck Kinen opened the meeting at 5:01pm.

MSC Volk/Livengood to approve the agenda with changes. Carried unanimously.

MSC Miller/Livengood to approve the September 2006 Minutes. Carried unanimously.

MSC Livengood/Volk to approve the September financial statements and bills. Carried unanimously.

TAC Rob Koppert gave his report and reported that he had hired Shawn Page as a fulltime dispatcher to replace Todd Waters. He also updated the Commission on recent problems with the EMS radio system. Two events had occurred which was determined to be bad connections in the telephone lines that link the communications center to the radio at the hospital. Two events have been with the radio system itself, each requiring a system reset to cure the problem. Both Qwest and Racom have been working on the problems.

There was no Old Business discussed.

There was no New Business discussed.

There were no comments or concerns brought by any citizens.

MSC Miller/Livengood to adjourn at 5:17pm.

Respectfully Submitted,

Rob Koppert, TAC
